

Kyoto University To New Students of the Second semester in 2018 Guidance

Three organizations concerning Information environment, Library network, Health, Safety and Environment offer guidance so that new students can start their education, research and school life smoothly in Kyoto University.

The guidance includes important aspects of campus life such as the use of Internet, information security countermeasures against computer viruses, how the library resources can be used for searching research papers, health and safety management, environmentally responsible activity etc.

Make sure you come to this guidance.

Target : Graduate students, Credited auditors, Research students, International students enrolled in the second semester of 2018

Date : Japanese October 4 (Thu) 16:30~18:30
 English October 5 (Fri) 16:30~18:30

Place : Institute for Liberal Arts and Sciences (ILAS). 3F -(Yoshida-South Campus)

Contents of the guidance

【Use of Network and Security】

You will be given comprehensive information such as what kind of information environment Kyoto University has, how you should use it, what you should be careful about when using it and how you should use your student account (ECS-ID)

【Use of Library】

We will explain how to properly use the electronic resources such as e-journals, databases and e-books. You will also be explained about general use of the library resources and what you should be careful about when using them..

【Health, Safety and Environment】

Not to be ruined your campus life due to accidents and health disorder, we will explain the tendency of accidents, security measure in experiment, promotion of eco-friendly activity in Kyoto University ou will learn how to perform chest compressions and how to use an AED device based on simple teaching materials (Appa-kun). You will learn how to save lives by cardiopulmonary resuscitation.

【CPR • AED seminar】

MAP 87-Institute for Liberal Arts and Sciences (ILAS)

Sponsor : Agency for Health, Safety and Environment • IIMC • Library Network

Inquiry : IIMC ICT support center

Academic Center for Computing and Media Studies, South Bldg., Kyoto University

E-mail : support@iimc.kyoto-u.ac.jp